

MSF Paediatric Days – Dakar 2017

DAY 1

- | | |
|---------------|--|
| 7:45 – 8:15 | Registration |
| 8:15 – 8:35 | Introduction to the Paediatric Days |
| 8:35 – 8:55 | Welcome speeches |
| 08:55 – 10:30 | Morning session on neonatal asphyxia and ischemic encephalopathy - Help Babies Survive Vs Help Babies Breathe <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Introduction – by David Southall- Prevention: the importance of integrating obstetric with neonatal management in prevention in resource limited settings – by Odeb Dolo- Early recognition and management in resource poor settings – by Ola D. Saugstad- Nursing care of new-borns with birth asphyxia: does it matter? – by Angela Okolo- Discussion and wrap up |
| 10:30 – 10:45 | PaED Talk |
| 10:45 – 11:15 | Coffee break – Poster viewing – Resuscitation skills station |
| 11:15 – 12:20 | Free oral presentations <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Introduction of strap-on automatic Doppler (Moyo) improves midwifery practices in a resource limited setting- Helping babies breathe, second edition: strengthening the program to increase global new-born survival |

- Mise en œuvre de la réanimation néonatale de base (BNB) au Burkina Faso: défis et perspectives
- NeoTapLS: a mHealth tool for assessing heart rate during neonatal resuscitation in low resource settings
- Neonatal tetanus cases in Central African Republic: a neglected tragedy

12:20 – 13:50 Lunch break – Poster viewing – Resuscitation skills station

13:50 – 15:25 Afternoon session on neurocritical conditions in resource limited settings

- Introduction – by Michael Levin
- Differential diagnosis and management of febrile coma in the context of MSF – by Charles Newton
- Cerebral malaria in 2017- beyond antimalarial: how can management reduce mortality in resource limited settings? – by Yamikani Chimalizeni
- Status epilepticus: a practical approach – by Robert Tasker

Discussion and wrap up

15:25 – 15:40 PaEDTalk

15:40 – 16:10 Coffee break – Poster viewing – Simulation Skills Station

16:10 – 17:05 Free oral presentations

- Differentiating cerebral malaria from bacterial meningitis in resource-limited countries: a literary review
- Unclassified fever at the community level – how should it be handled? Universal Versus Conditional three-day follow-up visit – A cluster randomized trial in Ethiopia
- Psychosocial and environmental correlates of clinical and immune-virological outcomes in HIV-infected adolescents on art in Myanmar – qualitative component
- Minors surviving sexual violence in Port Au Prince – Haiti

17:05 – 17:30 Wrap up of the day

17:30 – 19:00 Networking and drinks

DAY 2

- 8:30 – 8:45 PaEDTalk
- 8:45 – 10:20 First morning session on pain management in resource limited settings
- Introduction – by Julia Downing
 - Nursing care towards pain management in neonates – by Claire Dorin
 - Introducing morphine in daily paediatric oncology care: challenges and experiences in Senegal – by Morgiane Hung Badgi
 - No more invasive procedure without proper pain management – Analgesia in MSF projects – by Anisa Bhattay
- Discussion and wrap up
- 10:20 – 10:50 Coffee break – Poster viewing - Resuscitation skills station
- 10:50 – 12:25 Second morning session on supportive care in MSF
- Introduction – by Matthias Roth-Kleiner
 - An anthropological perspective of supportive/palliative care in Africa in Resource Limited Settings – by Doris Burtscher
 - Optimizing paediatrics quality of life through palliative care for children. The role of play and the experience in Uganda – by Julia Downing
 - Low cost, sustainable, community based palliative care initiatives: a pilot project to provide palliative care in an informal urban settlement (slum) in Dhaka, Bangladesh – by Megan Doherty
- Discussion and wrap up
- 12:25 – 13:05 Free oral presentations
- Pain management and palliative care in neonates – notes from the field during a training in Khost, Afghanistan
 - Approach to delivering critical paediatric care in Zahle, Lebanon: training surveillance and ethical considerations
 - Assessment of current situation, health habits and health care seeking behaviour for Syrian refugee children under 5 years old in the Bekaa Valley

- 13:05 – 14:35 Lunch break – Poster viewing – Resuscitation skills station
- 14:35 – 14:50 PaEDTalk
- 14:50 – 15:40 Oral presentations (Nutrition)
- Refugees from Mosul: assessing malnutrition among children under 12 months
 - Effectiveness of a simplified, integrated protocol for treating acute malnutrition (MUAC-ONLY): preliminary results from a non-inferiority trial in Yako, Burkina Faso
 - Diagnostic des diarrhées chez les malnutris aigues sévères (DiDiMAS): using qualitative molecular diagnostics to improve inpatient management of severely malnourished children with diarrhoea in N'Djamena, Chad
 - Widening our understanding on Kwashiorkor through an exploratory approach with key informants
- 15:40 – 15:55 PaEDTalk
- 15:55 – 16:25 Coffee break – Poster viewing – Resuscitation skills station
- 16:25 – 17:40 Operationalization wrap up of the 2 day-sessions
- 17:40 – 17:50 Closing speech and perspectives – by Marc Gastellu (Epicentre)
- 17:50 – 18:00 Closure of the 2017 MSF Paediatric Days